

Do you produce Boom Bap or Hip-Hop? Is the sound quality important to you? Are you into sampling, but want to avoid having to clear the rights to samples from old records? If so, you've come to the right place! We created a sample pack with 268 orchestral one shots using 50 instruments with a variety of chords or notes played using each one and processed them to sound as if they were cut from 60s, 70s, or 80s vinyls! These samples can be used as cuts to create phrases, or as individual notes allowing you to make your own melodies, and they fit in a variety of urban genres, including Hip-Hop and Boom Bap, R&B, Trap, and UK Drill. Enjoy time travelling!
